

Improving economic and social integration of Pakistani immigrant women N/00/B/F/PP-131075

Rolf Undset Aakervik

rolf@mangfold.no www.mangfold.no

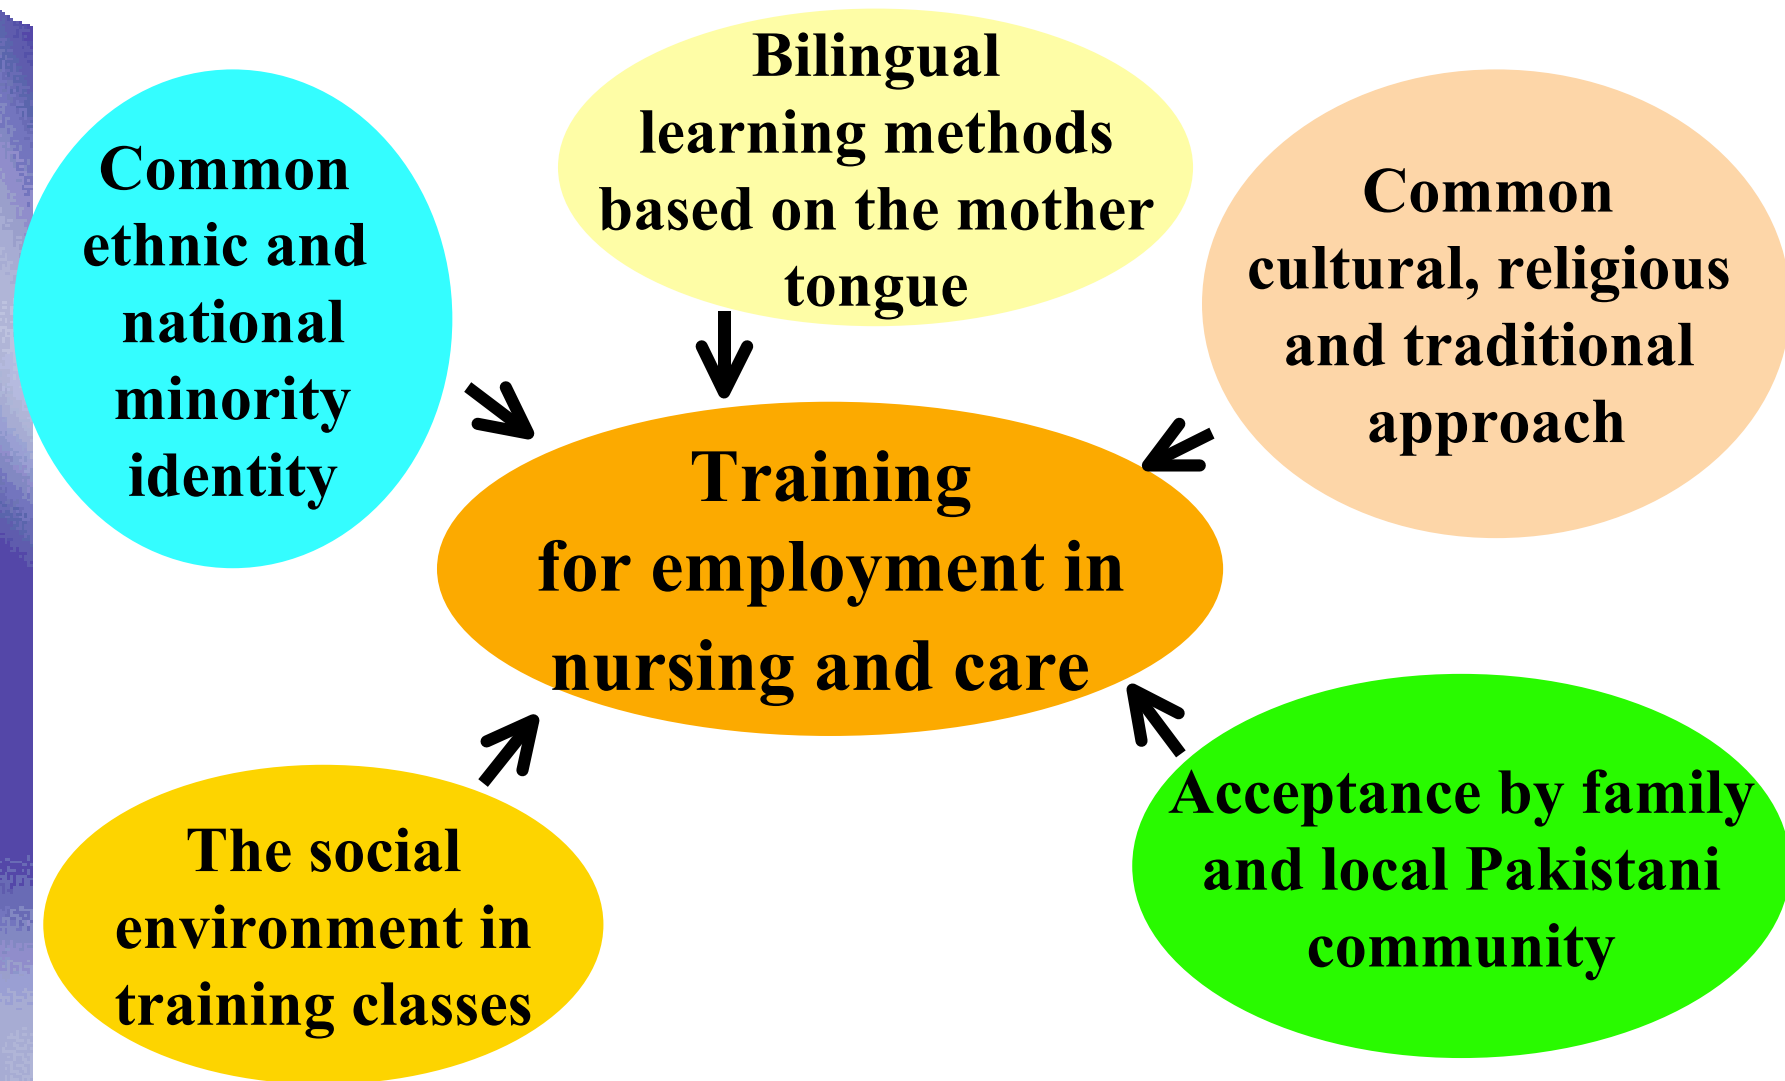

Partnere i LdV pilot-prosjekt for somaliske kvinner

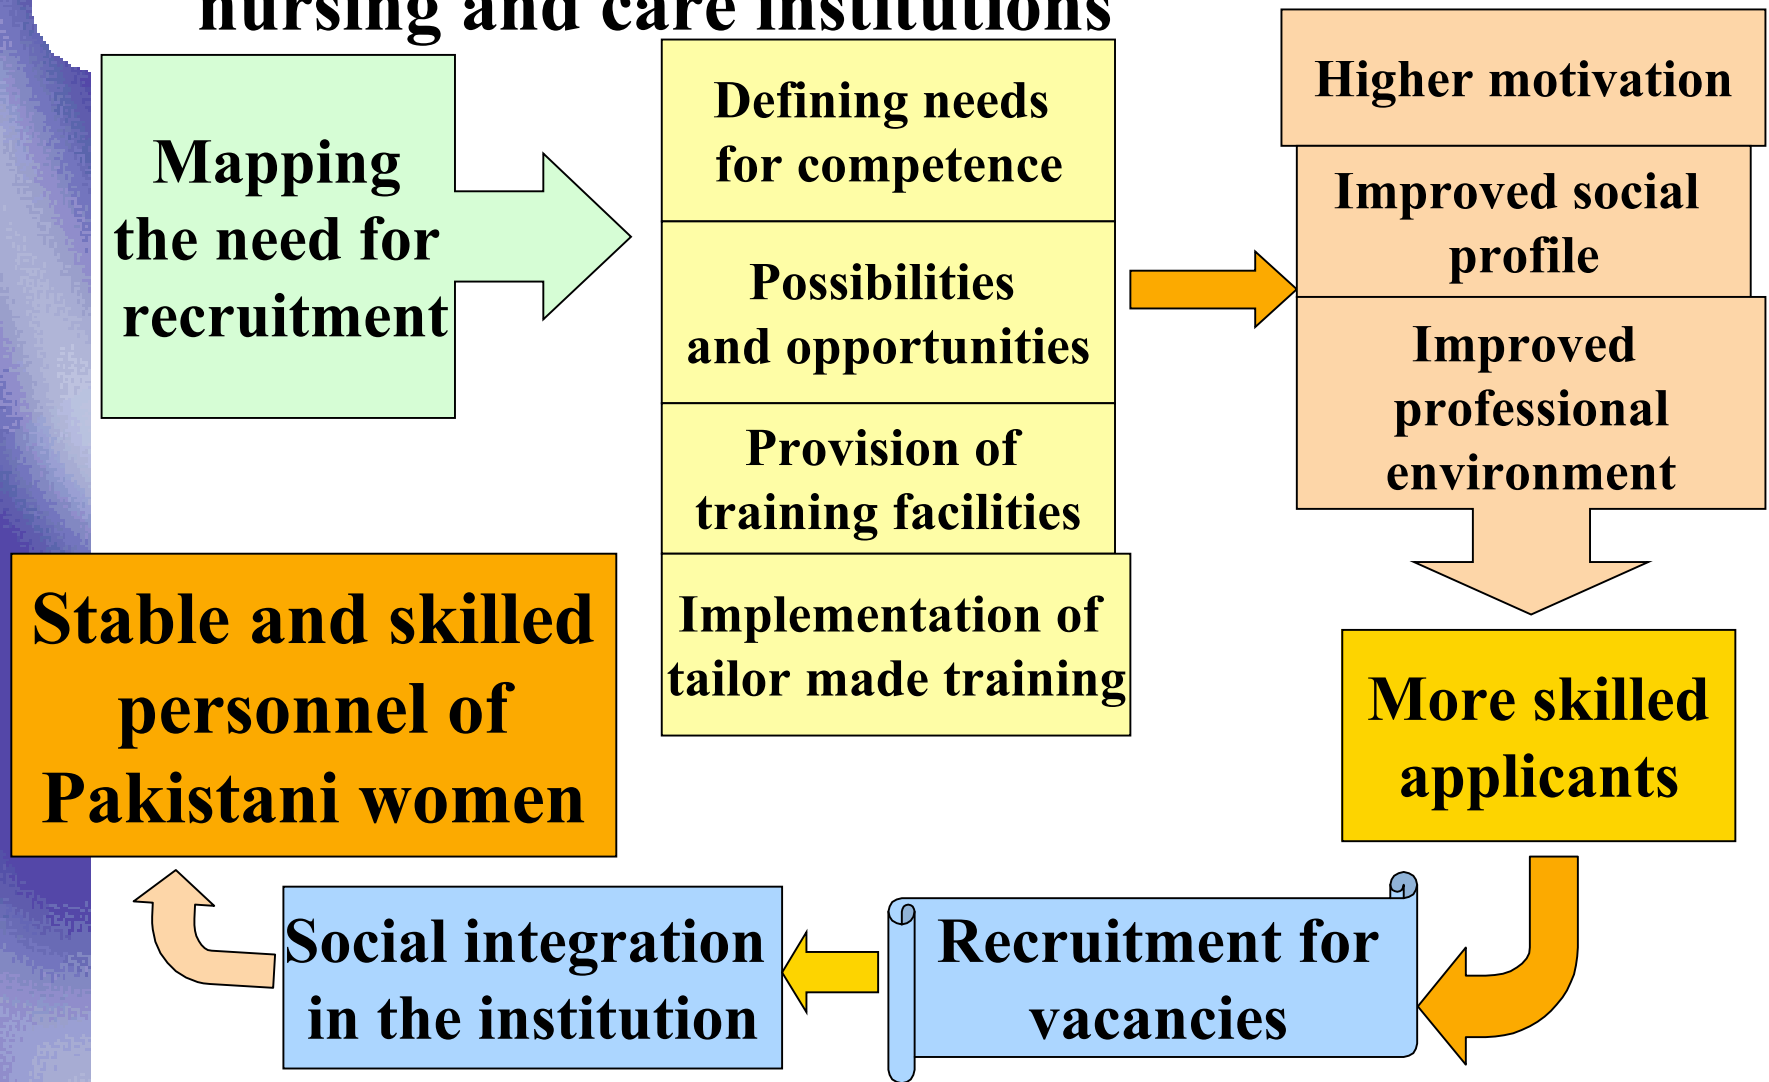

Pakistani women in health, nursing and care

Training of Pakistani women

Recruitment of Pakistani women to health, nursing and care institutions

Individual potentials

- Competence acquired in Pakistan
- Motivation for learning
- Ability to adapt to new conditions
- Ability to re-think (obtaining new skills)
- Loyalty to the institution
- Liability to the tasks
- Social qualities and cultural competence
- Abilities to co-operate
- Efficiency and professional skills
- Job satisfaction and well-being

Development of skills

- Enable Pakistani women to gain cultural and language skills for social and economic integration in the host country
- Motivating Pakistani women to develop professional and communicative skills for work with health, nursing and care
- Adapting knowledge, understanding and skills of the Pakistani women in the training

Training objectives:

- Recognise skills and education of Pakistani women within health, nursing and care
- Employment with possibilities to develop professional skills
- Health, nursing and care institutions need for skilled personnel with knowledge of Pakistani language, culture and tradition
- Training programmes directed to employment of Pakistani women for income generating possibilities